

Whatever happened to you

I see you are still taking that shit gettin that hit
I see you ,throwing your life away bit by bit ,
I see the glassiness in your eyes (yeh)
And somehow I'm not surprised
You think your are immortal but that you're not
I think your inner conflictions are self taught
Tell you when you use that boy that your life is a tick tock, tick tock tick tock
You say you can do what you want and you cant be stopped
My boy My,My boy whatever happened to you
My boy My boy whatever happened to you
To you,to you,to you, to you
The people who love you are helpless.
It's all up to you to defeat this.
You promised you'd try but you don't try ,,
The only thing left is to say good-bye, good-bye, good-bye
My boy My boy whatever happened to you
My boy My boy whatever happened to you
To you,to you,to you
